

Dear Friends and Colleagues:

The organizing committee cordially invites you to attend and/or present at the fourth annual workshop of International Association of Chinese Infrastructure Professionals (IACIP). This annual workshop will be held in conjunction with the 93rd TRB annual conference. The theme of this annual workshop is “Sustainable Transportation Infrastructure.”

Workshop date: Saturday January 11, 2014

Workshop time: 1:00PM to 6:00PM

Workshop location: Marriott Hotel, room: Thurgood Marshall South.

Workshop banquet: Saturday January 11, 2014, 7:00 PM to 9:00PM, location to be announced.

The IACIP workshop intends to provide a hub for researchers and practitioners to share their opinions, develop connections, and discuss collaborations in response to challenging issues in the various aspects of transportation infrastructure.

Several distinguished experts and officials have been invited to give lectures at the workshop. If you are interested in presenting your work at this workshop, please send your presentation title, abstract, and one-page CV to Dr. Ming Xiao, chair of the organization committee at mxiao@engr.psu.edu by Dec 2, 2013. The organizing committee will evaluate all the presentation topics and make selections for the workshop based on relevance of topic, interest to audience, and available time.

Thanks for your attention and we look forward to meeting you at the workshop.

Ming Xiao, PhD, PE
The 4th IACIP Annual Workshop Organizing Committee

Note: IACIP is a non-for-profit organization with the mission to prompt the technical and intellectual exchange among Chinese Infrastructure Professionals worldwide.
